

Stage Letter.

by Norman

Evelyn Nesbitt Thaw and Jack Clifford in their latest London dance success.

New York, July 11.—They certainly will be turning em away at the Hammerstein Roof Garden the week of August 4 if a cabled statement, reported to have been given out by Arthur Hammerstein in Paris, proves to be authentic.

Arthur is quoted as saying that he has made a contract with Evelyn Nesbitt Thaw and her dancing partner, Jack Clifford, to appear at the roof theater. They are to receive $2,000 a week, it is reported.

At present Mrs. Thaw and her team-mate are appearing at the Hippodrome in London, where they have